

relay hold time is too long to only have certified interpreters i am sure who has the ability of sign language are needed to be on that position to cut all that waiting times not just certified only otherwise it will be forever